

- Define – to look at processes from a business perspective, what is important?
- Measure – to determine the current state of a process, what is happening now?
- Analyse – to determine why there is a gap between current performance and the goals.
- Improve – to test proposed solutions and select those which best suit business needs.
- Control – to continuously monitor the process to ensure sustainability is achieved.